Editorial

Dear Reader,

I hope you are doing well and staying safe during the current COVID-19 Pandemic. We are delighted to publish the fourth issue of the second volume of Annals of Contemporary Development in Management & HR (ACDMHR). The journal is a peer-reviewed scholarly platform for publications in the area of management principles, practices, and human resources. This journal's distinguishing feature is that the editorial team envisions taking it for prominent indexing through publishing quality articles of seasoned scholars from across the globe. The current issue offers a blend of empirical and review articles in general Management and HRM with a few articles to enlighten readers on COVID-19 related components particularly.

On behalf of the entire editorial team, I once again welcome all readers on this learning journey and wish a thoughtful reading.
