Editorial

Dear Reader,

We are delighted to publish the second issue of the third volume of Annals of Contemporary Developments in Management and HR (ACDMHR). The issue is published with aspirations to offer our readers up-to-date scholarly information in management and HRM domains. The editorial team envisions taking this journal for prominent indexing through publishing quality papers from national and international scholars. The current issue has published articles on work engagement, HRM and employee performance, knowledge sharing and OCB, organizational change, and employee retention. The articles discuss some of the important issues practitioners and scholars. On behalf of the entire editorial team, I welcome you on this insightful learning journey.

Best regards,

Professor Aminu Mamman
